Student Code of Conduct

All students at The University of Texas at Austin are bound by the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities given in The General Information Catalog. Regulations and procedures regarding student discipline and conduct are set forth in Chapter 11 of the Institutional Rules. These institutional rules are intended to facilitate the educational process and to promote a safe, fair, and successful experience for students. Students who participate in University of Texas at Austin study abroad programs are representatives of The University and their country for the duration of their time on the program. The student will conduct him/herself appropriately and respectfully, and understands that misconduct abroad can lead to withdrawal from the program and a return home to the US at the student’s own expense, with no refund. Upon the student’s return to The University, the Office of the Dean of Students may also initiate disciplinary action. Failure to refrain from such activities will result in the implementation of the Misconduct Resolution Process outlined in this linked document. It is the responsibility of the student to review this document and understand the process outlined by the University.
