On-campus housing
On-campus housing is available only to enrolled students at UT-Austin. While you are not required to live on campus, residence halls or dormitories are available for you as an international student. These living facilities provide a room and meals, which are served in a cafeteria. Priority is given to first-year students. Apply as early as possible as spaces are limited.

Tips on finding an apartment in Austin

UT Austin has created a web page with links to off-campus housing accommodation: utexas.edu/student/housing/index.php?site=17&id=105

Check the classified section of the Daily Texan, Austin American Statesman, or Austin Chronicle. Select “Central Austin” for addresses nearest to the University of Texas at Austin.

Walk or drive around neighborhoods near campus (north or west) looking for "For Rent" or "For Lease" signs. If you are planning on taking the bus to campus most days, make sure that: 1) there is a bus stop close to the apartment building; and 2) buses which service the stop drop off at UT Austin.

Apartment Locator Services often provide free apartment locating services. Call the company or visit their website for additional information:

Additional housing option for visiting scholars

Occasionally, staff or faculty members who leave Austin for a year or part of a year will lease their properties to visiting professors and researchers. If you are a visiting scholar interested in this option, you can find a list of available rentals at: utexas.edu/provost/housing

Please keep in mind that faculty housing is very limited. Space is available depending on the time of year in which you will visit. This option is available only for visiting professors and researchers.
