LONG-TERM HOUSING

On-campus housing
On-campus housing is available only to enrolled students at UT-Austin. While students are not required to live on campus, residence halls or dormitories are available for international students. These living facilities provide a room and meals, which are served in a cafeteria. Priority is given to freshmen. Apply as early as possible as spaces are limited.

Austin Apartments
UT Austin has created a web page with links to off-campus housing accommodation:
www.utexas.edu/austin/housing.html.
Check the Classified section of the Daily Texan, Austin American Statesman, or Austin Chronicle. Select Central Austin for addresses nearest to the University of Texas at Austin.

Walk or drive around neighborhoods near campus (north or west) looking for "For Rent" or "For Lease" signs. Refer to the Capital Metropolitan (CapMetro) and University Shuttle Bus routes and schedules for convenient public transportation.

Apartment Locator Services often provide free apartment locating services. Call the company or visit their website for additional information:

Additional housing option for visiting scholars

If you wish to consider a home available from a staff or faculty member who is temporarily absent from the University, you will find a list of available rentals at: www.utexas.edu/faculty/housing/index.html

Please keep in mind that faculty housing is very limited. Space is available depending on the time of year in which you will visit. This option is available only for visiting professors and researchers.
