The University of Texas System
International General Liability Coverage for Students

General Coverage Description:

The University of Texas System International General Liability insurance provides coverage for a UT student when s/he commits an accidental (not expected or intended) negligent act that results in bodily injury or property damage to a third party. Coverage will not result in financial compensation to the UT student, rather if warranted, to the third party. Coverage benefits to the UT student will manifest in the form of defense assistance as warranted under the General Liability Insurance policy.

Coverage does not apply

- While the insured is travelling inside the United States.
- When the negligent action is expected or intended.
- If the insured consented to assume liability in a contract or an agreement (example rental car or property contracts).
- When the insured is under the influence of alcohol or distributing alcohol.
- When the insured is controlling a motorcycle, motorized scooter, automobile, watercraft, aircraft, or any other mobile equipment.
- When the insured damages their own property (including rentals) or personal property of others loaned to the insured.
